Foreword

Looking backward to note how far down the road of progress we have come---looking forward to the rise of a greater future for our school---drawing a cross section of one year, standing on the threshold of the old and the new, pausing to view the many campus activities---the staff presents the Hindsonian of 1930 in an earnest endeavor to keep fresh the pleasant memories of school life at old H. J. C.

Dedication

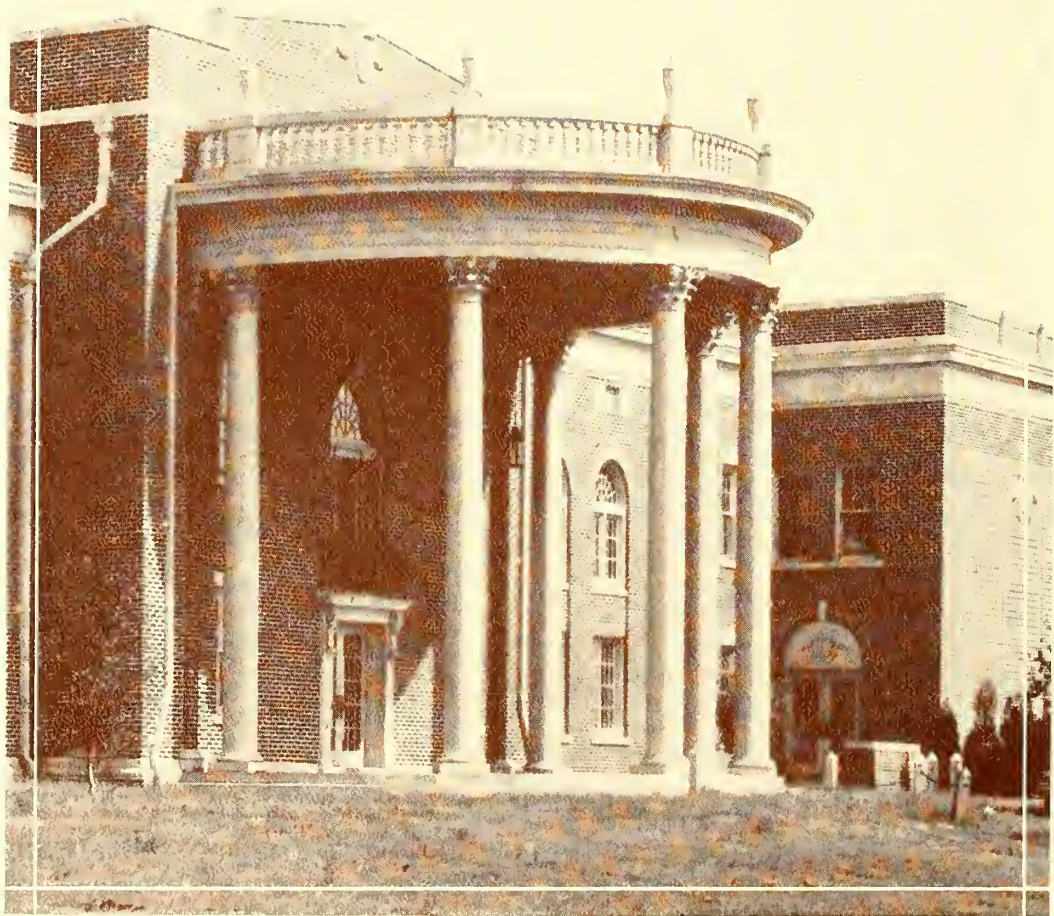

To the Youth of Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow blessed with the everlasting heritage of hope, Vision and Courage to carve on Life's shield symbols of great and noble deeds; this, the fourth volume of the Hindsonian

President G. J. Cain

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Students of Hinds Junior College:

I congratulate you upon the splendid results of this year's efforts. You have contributed untiring and sacrificial aid to all forces tending toward worth while and satisfying accomplishments for Hinds Junior College. Your loyalty in instituting and effectively advancing all possible means for a better college has been pleasing and is gratefully acknowledged.

I am wishing for you such characteristics as a Faith that will lead you ever onward; a Vision that will reveal to you the needs of others; a Love that will keep you pure. Power that will make you strong; a Devotion that will not let you falter.

Yours very truly,

G. J. Cain

COLLEGE

Took myself to H. J. C.
For a little rest and ease,
Thought I'd make nothing but A's—

I'm thankful now for D's.
Thought I'd take a history course—

Had too many tests
Then I took up literature * * *
The teacher knows the rest.
Turned my 'tention then to Math.

Hoping for a cinch.
Dropped that subject in three days.

Then I took up French.
Finding Latin was too hard.
Decided on B. S.
But when I entered the Science class

I flunked out like the rest.
Chemistry lab three times a week.

Biology as well.
But speaking of Psychology,
Oh, that's too sad to tell!
By this time to my mind

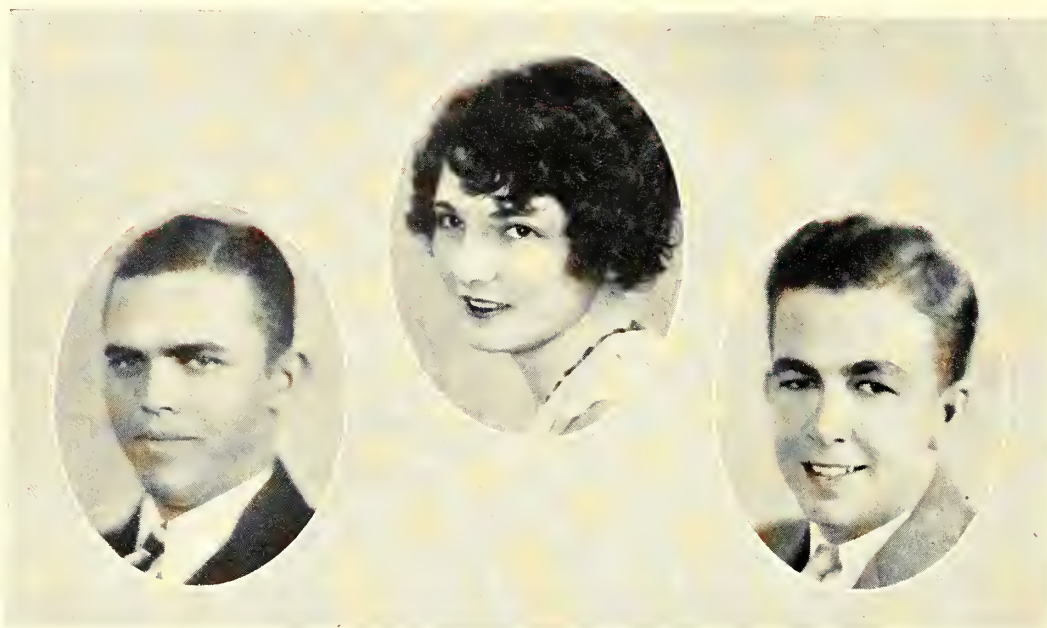

Came this little thought,
H. J. C. is a grand ole place,
But it ain't no winter resort.

Football

Cheer Leaders

Watermelon, watermelon, watermelon rind,
Look on the score-board and see what you find—
Hinds, Hinds leading the line,
. . . . , , way behind!

When you're up—you're up,
When you're down—you're down;
When you're up against the Eagles
You're upside down!

Rickety, Rackety Rust,
We're not allowed to cuss—
But darn it all! we can play ball,
Rickety, Rackety Rust!

Football

H. BERRYHILL, Right Tackle

This was "Tankey's" first year in football, but he was a tower of strength in the line.

BEAVERS, Half-back

Beavers' speed and his ability to elude tacklers was a great asset in his broken field running which gained many yards for the Eagles.

BURNHAM, End

Burnham was light, but he could always be depended upon to do his duty.

L. BERRYHILL, Left Tackle

"Bunker" never failed to hold down his side of the line.

BARDIN, Half-back

Bardin—the interference runner and the hard tackler on defense.

Cox, Left Guard

John's weight was a great asset in stopping the opponents.

CARR, Half-back

In Harold, H. J. C. had a back of rare ability. Scrappy and dependable, always a line plunger.

Football

STUBBLEFIELD, Guard

"Stubby" made many tackles for the Eagles.
He will be lost by graduation.

HALEY, End

John B. proved to be a flashy player at end this season. He piled up yardage for the "Eagles."

LONGMIRE, Guard

When it comes to grit and determination,
"Mid" has few equals.

JACKSON, Right Tackle

This big boy was quiet, but he could tackle with "Sampson-like" strength.

McELVIN, Half-back

W. C. was a good broken field runner and line plunger.

JOHNSON, End

"Johnnie's" spunk made up for his lack of weight.

HOLLIDAY, Guard

Alex was a hard fighter. He never cut practice.

Football

DAVIS, Quarter-back

Ellis had the speed of a Charley Paddock, and could run a broken field with uncanny ability.

RICHARDSON, Guard and End

"Big Rich" could play any position on the line. As a guard he stayed with 'em. No man has given more fighting ability to the team than "Jimmie."

L. WRIGHT, Center

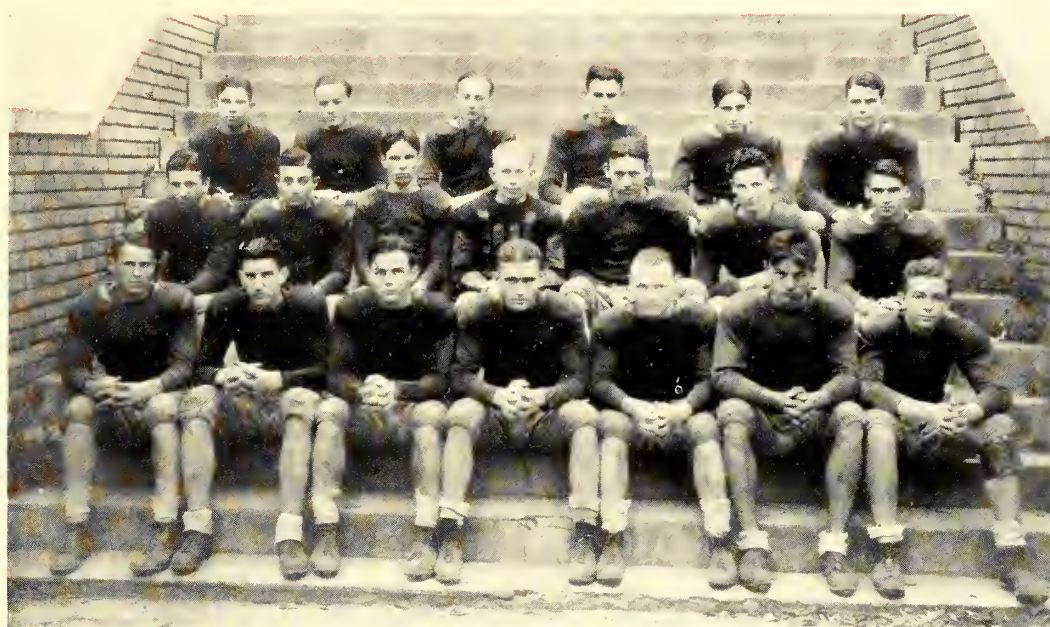

Lance was the kind that always held down the pivot position. He will be missed next year.

RUSSELL, Half-back

Lee could run a broken field equal to Red Grange.

R. WRIGHT, Center

Romuel, the third of the Wright Brothers, who has helped to make us proud of the squad.

Squad

When Coach Laird issued the call for gridironers, quite a number responded. Much raw material was available and from this source, coach began the task of training and development.

The beginning of the season found Smith as captain, but due to the death of his father he had to leave us before the season was over. Bryant took his place and led the team successfully through many rough plays.

The success of a team is often determined by the number of games won or lost during the season. While our defeats outnumbered our victories, we do not feel that the season was a failure. With a team with the pep and fighting spirit that the Eagles showed in every game it couldn't help being a success.

Basket Ball

ELLIS DAVIS, Forward

Even though this is Ellis' first year at H. J. C. he has made an enviable record. We are expecting him back next year.

RUBEN ROBINSON, Forward

Ruben was all ready when called upon. He held down his post as a forward with spirit and ability.

ROMUEL WRIGHT, Forward

He played hard to win. He fought every minute of the game. What more could be said for any player?

CRAWLEY STUBBLEFIELD, Guard

He was steady, untiring and co-operative. Characteristics which make any player valuable.

SPROLES DAVIS, Forward

He is a man who studies basket ball, and plays it for the joy of playing. The "come back" man who was valuable in pinches.

Basket Ball

STERLING BARDIN, Guard

Shifty, fast and capable of breaking up the most efficient passes.

MELVIN RICHARDSON, Guard

Speed and accuracy coupled with the ability to make long shots made him one of the most valuable players.

OMAR MORGAN, Forward

His ability as guard is only surpassed by his ability to make goals.

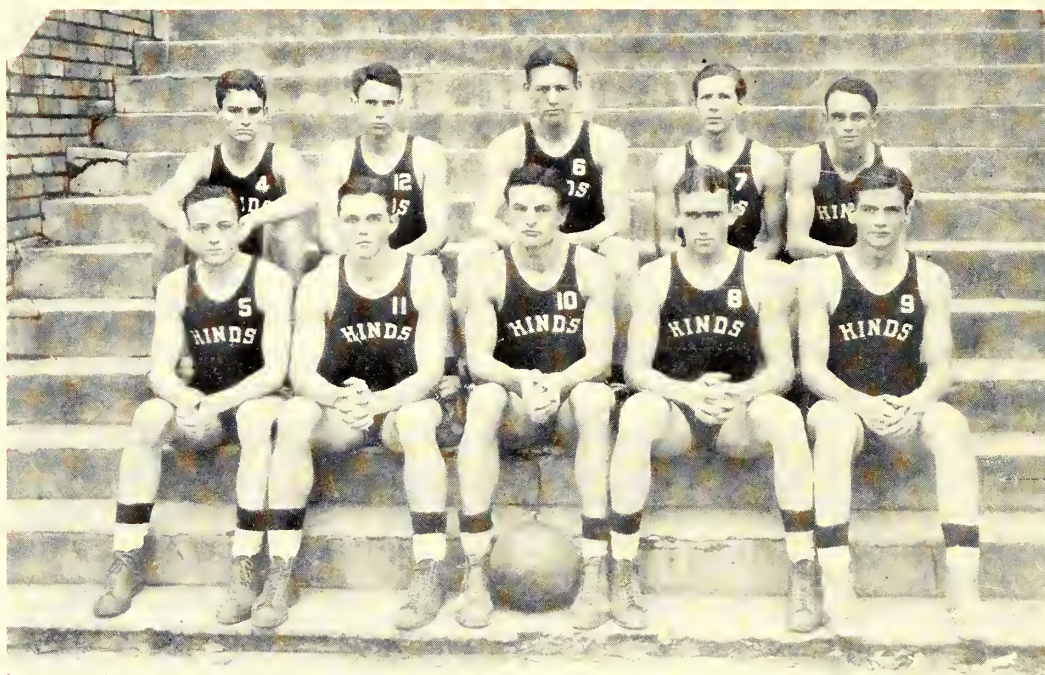

LANCE WRIGHT, Guard

If honor was for one who never failed, one who was always fighting for the team—it would be for Wright.

HERMAN BERRYHILL, Center

Long and lanky to get tipoffs, and an eye for the basket which rarely failed.

General Review

After the close of the football season, Coach Laird lost no time in beginning the training of a basket ball team. The nifty H. J. C. athletes went on the court to score for Raymond, and they made an enviable record, winning a majority of the games played. At the tournament even though they were put up against the strongest teams at the meet, thereby preventing them from entering the finals, many opponents will testify to the good work and clean play of the team.

For four consecutive years the Hinds Junior College volley ball team has held state championship. And each year the score has been one showing an easy victory over the opponents. The men on the team are: Cresslyn Richardson, Crawley Stubblefield, Herman Berryhill, George Worrell and Chalmers Broadfoot.

Track has also held its place in Hinds Junior College athletics for several years and is still holding its own. Much good material is at hand and the prospects are good for easily won victories in the Junior College Field Meet which will take place at an early date. The Eagles will be satisfied with nothing less than first honors.

As the Hindsonian goes to press, the diamond men are preparing for baseball. The prospects are good and with diligent practice the Eagles are planning to win a majority of the games on schedule.

And who said we were not athletic? ? ?

Girls' Basket Ball

PEARL BROWN, (C) Forward

Captain Brown counted a big score in the showing made by the Eaglets this year. Her goal throwing never failed to bring admiration from the spectators.

MYRTIS SEARCY, Forward

Searcy played good ball. She shows great skill in catching the ball and is very alert.

SARAH STANDIFER, Jump Center

Sarah is admired for her pep and ability. Cool and level-headed—her work is highly commendable.

BOBBIE MORRIS, Run Center

Bobbie was the stuff in offensive and defensive playing. She seldom failed to break up the work of the most efficient opponents.

HELEN DUKE, Guard

Helen was just as good on the court as she was anywhere else, and she is one of the best in everything.

IRMA LEE RICHARDSON, Guard

Even a stranger lost no time in recognizing her ability as a guard. She went in fighting, and stuck 'til the whistle blew.

Girls' Basket Ball

EDNA SWILLEY, Forward

"Give us Swilley," was the call from the rail birds many times. When she was in, there was no cause for worry.

CHESLEY NEWMAN, Run Center

Yes, small in size, but a swifter player never donned the Maroon and White. Chesley is from Phoenix.

LUCILLE BERRYHILL, Guard

Berryhill never failed to do her best. What more could be said for anybody?

IDA KEITH, Guard

Dependable, steady and capable. Ida never failed to support the team whether on the side line or in the fight.

LOIS WICKER, Guard

Although Lois is serving her first year on the H. J. C. team, her record is one that will not be forgotten.

LOUISE SWILLEY, Guard

Swilley will be remembered for her constancy in practice. She is expected back next year.

Soccer

The season of girls athletics opened this year with soccer. A comparatively new form of sports on our campus, this being the first year it had been actively engaged in. Quite a bit of pep and enthusiasm was created by the players and after two weeks of constant practice, the tournament was held between classes. Freshmen and Sophomores played the finals and the Sophs. won by a margin of one point. Soccer opened the gate for much interest in every other athletic event of the season.

General Review of Athletic Season

The Girls' Athletic Association was organized under the direction of Coach Sara Van Sheffield in the early part of the season 1929-30. In every phase of athletics the work was carried on in a great way with much show of interest and enthusiasm.

After the close of the Soccer season a real football team was organized. The members of the Association were divided into sides, namely the Reds and Whites who for two weeks practiced diligently on the gridiron. When the final game was played the Whites must have kept clinging tenaciously to their "rabbit foot," because in spite of a drizzling rain and muddy field they won by a score of 13—6. This was probably one of the most interesting athletic events which took place on the campus during the first of the season.

The sport of greatest interest is basket ball. Under the supervision of the peerless coaches Sheffield and Richardson the team made an enviable record, winning thirteen games out of the 20 that they played. Practically all of the material was new but a splendid team was worked out by the faithful coaches. They entered the semi-finals of the tournament winning second place in the state. Many teams can testify to the skillful pass work and goal throwing of the Eaglets.

We also have an outstanding volley ball team—champions of the state.

As the Hindsonian goes to press, we are entering track season with good material and expecting to hold our place as champions in tennis, broad jump, high jump, fifty yard dash and relay. Baseball season will start soon. Also swimming and hiking.

We believe we have as good material for first class athletics as any other college our size in the state. Watch us.

Favorite Sayings of the Faculty

Mr. Cain: Well, I hadn't thought of that, but we'll consider it.

Mr. Keith: Just a minute. We'll come to the point right short off.

Miss Whitaker: Girls, I rather think you'd better ask Miss Addie.

Miss Sheffield: Alright, get a move on you!

Miss Tate: Well, what do you think about it?

Miss Dulaney: Uh . . . uh . . . uh . . . uh . . . uh . .

Mr. Barnett: Set your machines for a test.

Miss Allen: Have you paid your bills?

Mr. Laird: Ma, how about supper at 6:30. We're practicing late.

Mrs. Shook: Uniforms and low-heel shoes must be worn.

Mrs. Cain: Your book was due last week.

Mr. Ashcraft: (Shh whisper it!)

Miss Williams: Now, children, you must act like ladies.

If the others say anything, it isn't worth remembering.

Music, like other fine arts, begins in the heart. "There's within our hearts a melody" and the Glee Club endeavors to give expression to that melody. This lively organization consists of students who pursue courses in piano, violin, voice and saxophone.

Under the skilled leadership of Miss Plumlee, music has become a source of great pleasure to us all. We are sure that the Glee Club has filled and will continue to fill an important place in H. J. C. campus activities.

Orchestra

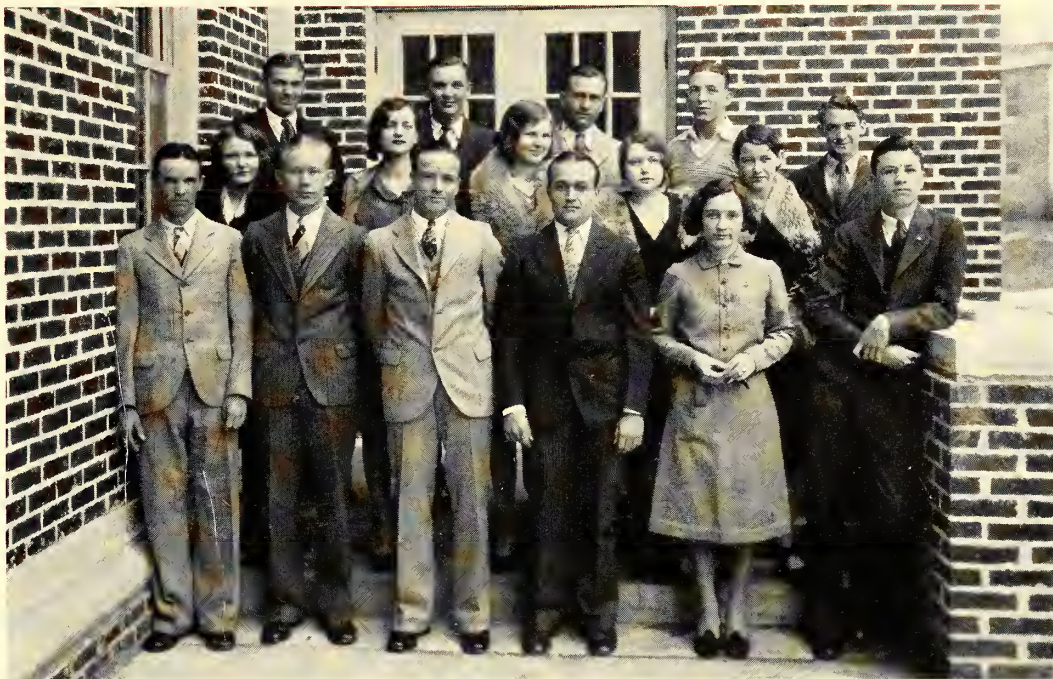

Under the direction of Mr. George H. Mackie, who is also a director of the Band at Mississippi College, the Orchestra is a live part of extra-curricula activities. This group of merry-makers usually meet twice each week for practice. At which time melodious strains of music may be heard by anyone who happens to be within hearing distance. The "baby band" has its place which nothing else can fill.

The session of 1929-30 has been one of progress and success for the Y. W. C. A. Early in the year "Building" was chosen as the theme around which the entire program for the association should be planned. Some of the things which we have tried to build are: Stronger character, better campus relations between students and teachers and among students themselves, more wholesome friendships, and in co-operation with the Hi-Y plans have been made for the building of a Y. W. and Hi-Y Hut on the campus where the organizations will have a place to call their "very own."

We, the staff of the Hindsonian of 1930, do hereby and forthwith will to our successors, the staff of 1931, all our Hindsonian troubles, our trials, our tribulations, our sorrows and our joys; our moments of exultation and our months of despair, our months of experience and our years of worry (during those some months) and all of the fun and happiness we have received out of co-operative working together to produce this book.

We bequeath to the staff of '31, the love of the student-body of 1930 whom our constant drive for funds has endeared us to most terribly. We hope and pray that you will be able to maintain the respect and co-operation of the 1931 student body.

Our heart goes out to you for yielding to a moment of weakness when a place on the Hindsonian Staff looks like a position on the President's Cabinet. You have our sympathy and we hope that when the year is over, they will place you near us in the psychopathic ward.

May your ultimate success be a source of joy and pride both to you and "dear ole' H. J. C." May you present the campus with a book, unrivaled in the past and a standard for the future.

Since you have persisted in your vainglorious ways and have taken the responsibility for 1931, in face of these facts, no warning of ours would register, and we, therefore, wish you unbounded success and prosperity mingled with genial co-operation and good fellowship.

Thus endeth the yearly lesson.
